NEWBURGH AND PORT JERVIS.

If your buildings need painting, you can't afford to neglect them. It's as poor economy as letting your horses and cattle go half fed. Without paint, woodwork goes rapidly to decay. Paint excludes air and moisture, preserves the wood and doubles a building's life. Then, too, there's the attractiveness of a well painted house.

Paint doesn't cost much either. We will sell you Moore's Pure House Colors, ready mixed, at $1.25 per gallon, all ready for use, and no time wasted mixing colors. They are bright, durable, attractive, ground in pure linseed oil and warranted satisfactory.

Some of the best town and country houses in Orange county are painted with Moore's Pure House Colors. Come and get a sample card. If you prefer lead and oil, our prices are the lowest possible for pure stock.

Then for your wagons, we will sell you colors ground in varnish, which will make an old wagon look new at small expense. You can use them yourself. See how little it will cost you to brighten up.

THE COMMON COUNCIL

Much Business Quickly Done Monday Night.

ALDERMAN WOOD LANDS ON TOP.

Gets His Man Named as Tax Election Inspector—Many Petitions Presented—Work Ordered—Other Matters Disposed Of.

The Common Council's regular session went along as smoothly as could be, Monday night, except when Alderman Wood outgambled Alderman Duclon and left Russell Wiggins, of the Young Men's Republican Club, lying outside of the plan garden. It happened when the election of inspectors for the taxpayers' meeting was before the council. Alderman Duclon introduced a resolution that inspectors be elected and before the motion was put by the chairman he jumped up and said:

"I name Russell Wiggins as one inspector."

The president called him to order and the alderman was so stunned that when the motion to proceed to an election was put and carried Alderman Barnes got in first and suggested Ora O. G. Neal as one of the inspectors.

The two ballots taken resulted:

O'Neal.....8 (elected)
Rogers.....6-8 (elected)
Miles.....6-5 (elected)
Wiggins.....6-4

The opening of the session was taken up by J. E. Campbell, the Academy avenue grocer, who presented the need of a sewer there and in Genung street, in a very nice way. The aldermen agreed that relief be needed and the matter was referred to the sewer commissioners with the request that they report at the next meeting.

Petitions were received and action taken as follows:

Curb and gutter Odgen street, between School and Price streets. Referred to the street committee.

Two incandescent lamps Gar net avenue. Referred to the lighting committee.

Pave West Main street from Franklin Square to the westerly side of James street. Petitioners represent 651 feet, non-signers 102 feet. Referred to the street committee to confer with the engineer as to the cost.

Repair Houston avenue between Sprague and Prospect avenues. Referred to the street committee.

On motion, Excelsior by-laws as amended were approved.

A communication was read from T. A. Mape on the Fulton street sewer question, in which he stated that bills would continue to be sent in as long as the sewer backed up.

Fire Inspector Hirst's report was accepted.

Several committees reported on work ordered which had been done.

Houston avenue was accepted by the city.

The bond of J. A. Wallace as city treasurer of 1899, and that of I. B. A. Taylor as city clerk, for 1899, were cancelled.

The sidewalks on both sides of Sprague avenue were ordered relaid and the gutters reset.

Mayor Elwood presented blank forms to be filled out by the council in order to secure the state's share of the expense of tunnelling the tracks at Genung street.

The city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance relating to dogs running at large.

Prospect avenue was ordered graded from East Main to DeWitt street.

The sidewalk on the north side of Hanford street, belonging to Mrs. Eggleston, was ordered bagged in 30 days.

On motion of Dr. Barnes a coat of crushed stone was ordered laid on Hanford street from West Main to Harding street.

A deed was ordered given John H. King for two lots which he purchased at a tax sale Sept. 28, 1896.

A bill of $25.50 from the estate of F. L. Trux, dated 1897, for water sprinkled on the streets at 75 cents a load, was referred to the law committee.

A bill of Slauson & Boyd's for $10 took a similar course.

A Stolen Horse.

Capt. Veber was notified by Marshal Perrott, of Newburgh, Monday afternoon, to look out for a stolen horse.

The horse was a bay, with a white star in its forehead. It was hitched to a black buggy, having iron plates at each front corner.

The stolen rig was recovered at Harverstraw, Monday evening. It had been sold to a man near that village.

Written by an Ugly Dog.

As Mrs. A. B. Wilbur was passing the corner of John street and Wickham avenue, this morning, a big dog lying on the walk gave a growl and then sprang at her, setting his teeth in her hip.

Dr. Harndenburgh was called and cauterized the wound, which is several inches long and though painful is not considered dangerous.

The dog was shot, this afternoon.

Hearing of Brewery Creditors.

MR. POWELSON'S "COLD FEET."

The Press's Attempt to Explain His Absence from the Democratic Dinner—Libeling a Mighty Trencherman.

From the Middletown Press.

The Angus does District Attorney Powelson a great injustice when it intimates that that gentleman was kept from the Democratic dinner, Thursday, through fear that some of the speakers would "roast" him. Those who know Mr. Powelson well know that he can take good care of himself in any wordy encounter and that nothing would please him more than getting back on any of the would-be "roasters" on such an occasion. The judge really expected to attend the dinner and omitted the morning and midday meal on Thursday in anticipation of the evening event. By 8 o'clock, however, he felt as never before that "nature abhors a vacuum," that only a dinner of the Perry Belmont ten-dollar variety, promptly served, would satisfy a very hungry man and that any 30 cent affair would be an aggravation. These facts are now published for the first time and give the real, sure-enough reason why the Press failed to be represented at the Democratic 50 cent dinner, which has now become more or less fact.

Our neighbor doth "protest too much." It is undoubtedly true that a $10 dinner is nearer the District Attorney's size than a dollar dinner for fifty cents, but surely the Press cannot expect its readers to believe that a mighty trencherman like Mr. Powelson would omit breakfast and a midday dinner in order to do justice to an evening feast. Such an insinuation is as cruel and unkind reflection on the capacity of Mr. Powelson's stomach as a waiter at a banquet to smirch the fame of his gastronomic achievements which are as familiar as household words throughout Orange and adjacent counties.

No, the Press's explanation doesn't explain Mr. Powelson's failure to attend the dinner. We still adhere to the belief that his "feet got cold." He was scared off by the prospect that if he appeared on the festive scene the menu would be enlarged by the addition of "roast Powelson."

HYMENEAL.

Bord-Carpenter.

The cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carpenter, No. 19 Linden avenue, was the scene of a pretty home wedding, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss M. Elizabeth, and Charles Boyd, a unit in marriage. The house was attractively decorated by Baldwin for the occasion.

Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present and they were informally welcomed by the bride and groom before the ceremony.

Rev. Dr. W. A. Robinson performed the ceremony, which was with ring, and then congratulations followed.

The bride, who is a very attractive young woman, was attired in a pretty gown of white organdie, and wore white roses in her hair. The couple were not attended.

Refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will leave on No. 8 for New York. The bride's traveling dress is of army blue.

After a few days' absence the couple will return to occupy a home which they have already furnished at No. 32 Spring street.

The groom is the trusted bookkeeper at the Merchants' National Bank and is president of the Young People's Society of the First (Congregational) Church, of which his bride is the secretary. Both have many friends in this city who will extend congratulations and unite in good wishes.

Kitcham-Vananden.

From our Goshen Correspondent.

A very quiet home wedding took place yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Vanandenburgh, when their daughter, Miss John A. Kitcham, and Mrs. Sophie E. Vananden, sister of Mr. Vanandenburgh, were united in marriage.

The groom is Goshen's street commissioner and is one of the most energetic incumbents that the office has ever had. He is a genial public official, widely known and popular. His bride, Mrs. Vananden, is a former resident of Sing Sing, where she is well known. For the past two years or thereabouts she has resided in Goshen, and of late has made her home with her brother where the wedding took place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Floyd A. Crane and was attended only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitcham took Erie train 27 for an extended wedding tour in the west, after which they will return and begin housekeeping in this village.

"A MILK WHITE FLAG."

Hay's Most Successful Play at the Casino.

"A Milk White Flag" is undoubtedly the best of Hay's plays and far and away the most entertaining. It is one of the liveliest affairs before the public. In the language of the day it is "swift" and sometimes it is so swift you simply can't keep pace with it.

The first act with its brilliantly uniformed and peacefully inclined military officers, its dashing vivandiers, its gaily appareled band and its attractive feminine messenger "boys" is simply astonishing and bewildering. New music and crisp Hayt bumps spoken by personages who appraise and accentuate every point, give the opening act a vim and life that only a Hayt comedy can possess.

The second act proceeds the action becomes simply hilarious and the fun contagious.

There are too many good things in "A Milk White Flag" to stop to enumerate them. A personal visit is the only thing that can satisfy anybody. The company is fully up to the usual Hayt standard of excellence. It is really impossible to say too much of the entertainment and quality of "A Milk White Flag."

IN RECORDER'S COURT.

—There was not enough evidence to hold "Squire" Daily in the Summit coil stealing matter, tried this morning, and lawyer Burke's motion for the discharge of his client, was granted.

HYMENEAL NOTES.

ARSON AT MIDWAY.

Schmitt & Backman's Raines Law Hotel Burned.

FIRE PLAINLY OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

Park Watchman's Hard Fight to Save Other Buildings—A Large Area Burned Over—Watchman Losing His Nerve.

When the watchman at Midway Park discovered that the woods were on fire in the vicinity of the reservoir, Monday forenoon, he hurried up there in time to see two boys disappearing over the hill in the vicinity of Phillipsburg Cemetery on a run. They were too far away to be identified and the need of prompt action on his part to prevent the destruction of the tower and inclined railway power house prevented pursuit. Since then he has had his time occupied in keeping the fires down in that vicinity.

Anticipating that a second attempt might be made to fire the houses in that vicinity he spent Monday night on the hill.

About 2 o'clock, this morning, he saw a fire break out in the vicinity of Schmitt & Backman's Raines law hotel, just outside the southern boundary of the park. He hurried down there only to find that the building had been set on fire and was going beyond prevention by the means at hand. The flames around it began to crackle and soon at least an acre of the park was burning merrily. The watchman kept the fire from the Schmitt & Backman lunch room, situated near the shooting gallery, but the hotel was slowly burned to the ground.

Several houses were burned on the sidewalk nearest the fire from butt to tip. The lunch room was on fire several times, and a hole burned in its side, would receive a barrel of beer without any trouble.

The watchman worked hard with a wet broom to prevent the spreading of the undergrowth fire to the bowling alley, raffle, darts, photograph gallery and restaurant. He had three hours' hard work, the fire line extending from the lawn back grounds easterly to the wire fence cutting off Buer's park. The leaves which had accumulated in the fountain made a fire which must have been extinguished only after hard fight.

The fire extended to a point within a hundred feet of the other buildings in the park, and that all were saved some almost miraculous. The watchman has become alarmed, and as his bed is on the second floor of the Gunther hotel he has rigged up a ladder supported by a rope which he used to escape in case the building should catch fire and gain great height before he awakes.

The property which was burned, this morning, was owned by Mr. Marsh, the Phillipsburg milkman. The report was current at the park, to-day, that some of the laborers who have received the vials of Mr. Marsh's wrath while fishing along the shores at Phillipsburg had fired the place for spite. This is not likely, however.

INVESTIGATORS WILL REST.

Crokes Examined Until August—Police Corruption Probed.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Massey committee has adjourned for two weeks. Richard Croke will not be called to the stand until Aug. 25. He will sail for England on the New York tomorrow. All the efforts of the committee yesterday were directed to ascertaining if the police force of Greater New York had raised a fund to influence legislation at Albany. Plans for the future work of the committee have not yet been outlined. At the afternoon session there was a session when Police Sergeant Oliver Tims was compelled to give up the papers of the Police Sergeants' Benevolent and Endowment association, which is said to have been formed to raise money to influence legislation in Albany. Tims is the president of the association and is known as the "baron" of the sergeants. When he was called to the stand, there was great excitement in the room, as it was known that the committee had at last decided to probe into the raising of the alleged police corruption fund.

It was while John Proctor Clarke was questioning Sergeant Tims that Tims drew from his pocket some papers which made a good handful even for the big policeman. He was referring to them in answer to some questions, and Assemblyman Fallows and other members of the committee craned their necks to look at them.

Then came a demand from the committee that the papers be placed in evidence. Tims was taken by surprise. He hesitated a moment, then became confused and handed over the papers in bulk.

Assemblyman Fallows rushed down from the bench to Mr. Clarke's side, and both glanced hurriedly over the papers. Some of them were the names of sergeants in Manhattan and Brooklyn and opposite their names figures representing money. Many of these figures were checked as though paid.

Assemblyman Fallows went over and stood in front of the witness and began fire questions at him rapidly. Tims became more confused, but made no important admissions.
